

The Epic

- Information is gathered:

Friends and family members that have been chosen will be asked to provide background information to be used in the creation of the interview. Generally six to eight people will participate.

- The interview is scheduled:

Interviews usually take place in the subject's home however may be conducted in other suitable places if so desired.

- The on location filming:

Using professional state of the art camera, audio and lighting the filming is a process that generally takes two to three hours. David Hinshaw has been conducting interviews for many years and is truly a master of his craft, making this a very enjoyable and relaxing experience.

- The Editing:

Editing is performed by Storybook Media under the direction of David Hinshaw and generally requires up to two weeks time depending on the complexity of the production. The finished piece will run approximately thirty five to forty five minutes.

Personal photographs, appropriate music and video clips may be added and chaptered sections are created. The final product is presented in bookcase quality cases with customized graphics.

Production cost: $3,900.00

(Travel and Lodging expenses additional if applicable)

Storybook Media, Inc. also offers more elaborate productions and will be pleased to provide a quote upon request.