

The Short Story

- Information is gathered:

Two to three friends and family members that have been chosen will be asked to provide background information to be used in the creation of the interview.

- The interview is scheduled:

Interviews usually take place in the subject's home however may be conducted in other suitable places if so desired.

- The on location filming:

Using professional state of the art camera, audio and lighting the filming is a process that takes approximately forty five minutes to one hour. David Hinshaw has been conducting interviews for many years and is truly a master of his craft, making this a very enjoyable and relaxing experience.

- The Editing:

Editing is performed by Storybook Media under the direction of David Hinshaw. The finished piece will run approximately fifteen to twenty minutes. The production will have chaptered sections with two to three personal photographs incorporated to enhance the interview. The final product is presented in DVD format in bookcase quality cases and customized graphics.

Production cost $850.00

(Travel and lodging expense additional if applicable)